

School?

How have you seen your students' approach to music change since the songwriting workshops?

Have you seen an increase of confidence in self-expression? How?

Are your students more comfortable performing in front of others? How?

Are your students more comfortable making music independently? How?